LOOKING AHEAD TO MASON'S 36TH ANNUAL DOWN HOME DAYS

Mason's 36th annual Down Home Days will be held Thursday through Sunday, on September 17 through 20. Go to www.masonchamber.org and click on "Down Home Days" for the latest information.

Down Home Days starts off on Thursday, September 17 with the last concert in the fifth season of the Mason Area Chamber of Commerce's "Thursday Night Live" series sponsored by Independent Bank. This free concert on the Ingham County Courthouse lawn starts at 6:00 p.m. and is sponsored by Dart Container Corporation. It features the Mason High School Band and Cheer Squad. The Mason Optimist Club will be selling hotdogs, chips and pop to benefit youth programs before and during the concert.

On Friday, September 18 from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m., the Mason Kiwanis Club will be selling BBQ chicken sandwiches from the Mason Fire Station at 221 W. Ash Street. Proceeds go to the Mason Promise Scholarship. After dinner, everyone is encouraged to take a stroll on the Hayhoe Riverwalk with their friends, families and neighbors from 5:00 to 7:30 p.m. The 3rd annual Family Walk will have the start/finish on the south side of Ash Street across from Lee Austin Park near the Mason Fire Station where free food, giveaways and more will be available. The walk is hosted by the Mason Area Chamber of Commerce as part of the Chamber's "Hometown U.S.A." activities.

The signature event of Down Home Days begins the morning of Saturday, September 19, with the 36th annual Courthouse Show in downtown Mason. Michelle Davis of The Shopping Guide, chair of the Mason Area Chamber of Commerce's Down Home Days committee, says that "our estimates are that between 4,000 and 6,000 people attend the show each year." She added that the show features a mix of arts & crafts, flea market, food vendors, entertainment, and community group booths. The show runs from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Saturday only.

Elaine Ferris, the market master for the Mason Farmers Market, says that "the market will take place as it does every Saturday morning this time of year on Maple Street." She adds that "some vendors stay later than noon to continue selling during the afternoon hours." Also on Saturday, the Mason Area Historical Society will have their Pie Sale at Mason Area Historical Museum, 200 E. Oak Street in Mason, starting at 10 a.m.

Rummage sales will abound in the Mason area during Down Home Days, with the fifth annual "Treasures" Sale by Mason College Club taking place from 7:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Saturday in the pavilion by Lee Austin Park, near the corner of Ash and Lansing Streets in Mason. Other events from other groups are in the planning stages. They should notify the Chamber as soon as possible. Check the Community Calendar at the www.masonchamber.org/comcal website for all the activities as they are announced.

BUILD MASON VALUES: MENTOR MASON AREA ENTREPRENEURS

The Mason Area Entrepreneurs Club believes that as a Mason area business owner or manager, you relate well to others who are also running a business. Brian Tort of Central Solutions, Inc., president of the club, thinks that you can "also relate to people who are running or starting a small business in the Mason area." Are you willing to share your expertise with those who ask for it? If so, you can help new entrepreneurs realize that being "on your own" doesn't mean you have to "be alone." You can mentor these area entrepreneurs by answering their questions about running a business.

The format of their ninth meeting is again a guided group discussion. It is an open sharing session on questions that are of interest to entrepreneurs. The meeting runs from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 24, 2009 at Mason's City Hall Community Room (enter in the back door), and just go down the stairs, at 201 W. Ash Street. The session is free and snacks and beverages are provided by sponsors.

No one may actively solicit at the meeting. There are no dues or cost to attend. A speaker will present on "advertising design," followed by informal networking and the guided group discussion.

TWO MORE "THURSDAY NIGHT LIVE" CONCERTS

Bring your lawn chairs and blankets to downtown Mason on Thursday evening, August 27 to hear the second annual Mason Area Idol finals at 6:00 p.m. sponsored by City Limits Sports Grill. This is the seventh of eight scheduled concerts in Mason's fifth season of "Thursday Night Live!," a summer series of live musical entertainment hosted by the Chamber and presented by Independent Bank. Concerts are free and are scheduled for select Thursdays through the middle of September, weather permitting.

The Mason Optimist Club will again be selling hot dogs, chips and pop right on the Courthouse lawn. Many downtown stores and restaurants will be open before and after the event.

The entertainment series concludes with the Mason High School Band on Thursday, September 17 at 6:00 p.m., led by Beth Bousfield, MHS Band Director. The Mason High School Cheer Squad will join them in the program sponsored by Dart Container Corporation. This last concert will also mark the beginning of Mason's 36th annual Down Home Days weekend, September 17 through 20.

The Mason Orchestral Society

announces the start of its 34th season.

New members are always welcome. Rehearsals begin September 1st for the Mason Symphony (formerly the Mason Community Orchestra) and shortly thereafter for the Mason Philharmonic (formerly the Mason Youth Symphony). Rehearsals are held in the Mason Middle School band room (235 Temple St.) throughout the school year from 7:00 to 9:00 PM. For the current schedule, go to the <http://www.masonorchestras.org/rehearsal.html> website. In past years, the Mason Symphony, has been looking for string players, as well as percussionists & trumpet players with advanced level skills. The Mason Philharmonic has been looking for string, wind & brass players. The Philharmonic is open to all ages and playing abilities. For information visit www.masonorchestras.org or call Kay Rinker-O'Neil at 676-3678.

NEWS OF OUR MEMBERS

Don't miss the opportunity to talk with your own personal counselor through the Service Corps of Retired Executives, SCORE, an association of experienced business professionals who serve as volunteers/mentors for new business startups or businesses in need of specialized counseling. Sponsored by the U.S. Small Business Administration, counseling and advice is free and can take place in the Lansing Chamber office or at your own business site. A more local connection to SCORE is through counselor and Mason Area Chamber of Commerce member Ed Souders. He can work with folks either at the SCORE office in Lansing, or at his home in Mason. Ed Souders was IBM's outstate executive prior to starting Entré Computer Services in 1983. He and his wife Lillian sold the business in 2000 to Analysts International. He specializes in business planning and marketing. He is particularly looking to help small businesses that may be struggling. For more information, call Doug Klein at our MACC office at 676-1046.

Mason Sycamore Creek Garden Club will be meeting again on Tuesday, September 1, 2009 at 6:30 PM in the Cobblestone Events Center, 205 Mason Street in the Mason Antiques District.

The Lansing location of TWO MEN AND A TRUCK® will host a grand opening celebration and ribbon cutting ceremony for its new location at 1200 Keystone Avenue in Lansing. Grand opening festivities begin at 2 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 24. The moving company has tripled the size of its Lansing franchise with a 28,000-square-foot building. The company spent about $2 million on the building and several renovations. Founder Mary Ellen Sheets, Lansing Mayor Virg Bernero and President and CEO Brig Sorber will all speak at the event. Light refreshments follow the ceremony. For more information, contact their office at (517) 485-4545 or e-mail amanda.augustine@twomen.com.

The Mason Farmers Market has been very successful this year, but they need some volunteers to help set up and tear down each Saturday morning. Call Elaine Ferris for details at (517) 676-4175.

Dart Bank has again organized the annual "Mason Cares" event for Friday, September 11, 2009 from 1 to 7 PM at the James M. Pelton Memorial Fire Station at 221 W. Ash Street in Mason. Groups of volunteers from the community will lend a hand in jobs like washing and waxing fire trucks and police cars, cleaning up the fire station, and putting together information packets. Now is the time for you to put together a team to help. Contact Colleen Briggs at cbriggs@dartbank.com or (517) 244-4421 to volunteer. If you can't be there that Friday afternoon, other items needed include food and beverages for the volunteers, cleaners, bottled water, tire protectant, chrome polish, etc. Colleen has a list of items needed.
